Ringo is set to star

YET another Neighbours star is set to make the move into the music industry, and this time Geelong residents will get to see the show.

Sam Clark, better known by his character name Ringo Brown, will release his debut single Broken at Geelong Gala Day on Saturday, November 21.

The 21-year-old could join the likes of Kylie Minogue or Delta Goodrem as performers who made a successful transition between the entertainment mediums.

Clark will perform in the designated youth area on Gala Day, specifically designed for 12 to 18 year-olds.

Clark said earlier this year that music was always his first love.

"Music is what defines me," he said

"It's the language I speak and how I communicate best."
